AMA References AMA Books Citation. When citing a book in AMA, a student is to provide authors' last names as they appear on the cover of the book with initials. Commas are put between the authors' names, and a period is put after the last author's name. After that, you are to state the title of the book in italics with capitalization. Then the publication place and the publisher's name are given.

which means you put a number in your text to cite sources of information and the reference list is in numerical order. In text citations are in superscript 1 and in order of citation (the first citation is 1 the next is 2). If you use the same source again, you keep the same number (the source you used for the first citation is always 1, even if you use it again after 6).
