“An Epic.”—THE GUARDIAN We rejoin The Expedition for its third and final instalment with Jason, now seasoned adventurer, and April, American schoolteacher at sea for the first time, battling to keep their pedal-powered boat Moksha from being dashed against Australia’s Great Barrier Reef. Crossing the infamous Coral Sea, they’ve endured gale force winds, rogue waves, and powerful currents pushing them off course for days at a time. On her thirtieth consecutive day of seasickness and now haemorrhaging blood, April is in urgent need of medical treatment. But in the uncharted waters north of Cape Flattery, far from coastguard assistance, there is little if any hope of rescue. Even if they survive, Jason faces untold hazards to complete the first circumnavigation of the planet using only human power: waterless deserts, towering mountain ranges, seaborne pirates, and extremist hotspots. And there is still the overarching question he posed at the beginning, the one driving him forward that will take him to the brink for an answer. “A mind-boggling odyssey beyond the stretch of the average imagination.”—ASSOCIATED PRESS “Lewis writes with gritty realism and unexpected humour, and the result is both horrifying and enormously inspiring.”—NEW TIMES “We see a man who is – as Mowgli put it in The Jungle Book – prepared to pull the whiskers of death.”—LONDON TIMES “Arguably, the most remarkable adventurer in the world today. Many people would certainly go insane if they weren’t killed first.”—THE DAILY MAIL “I believe it is important in our era of cars, trains and aeroplanes that we are reminded what human beings can achieve using their own strength and resources.”—HIS HOLINESS THE DALAI LAMA “Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance meets Bill Bryson’s A Walk in the Woods. A thoroughly entertaining and insightful read.”—CHARLIE BOORMAN, Long Way Down “An extraordinary adventure.”—THE INDEPENDENT “An enthralling read.”—OUTDOOR PHOTOGRAPHY

After a night of celebrating his graduation from law school, young John Stevens waes to find himself in the bathtub, bleeding from the head and suffering the worst hangover he has ever had. His pain is just a precursor of the agony that awaits him when he discovers his beautiful girlfriend slaughtered on his kitchen floor. As the prime suspect, John's life is thrown into turmoil; and his family is drawn into a nightmare that destroys everything his middle class parents have struggled to achieve. With limited resources, Tom Stevens, John's middle aged, hard working father, hires an inept attorney to defend his son. The trial is a disaster, and the father, committed to saving his son takes matters into his own hands. The results are explosive. This incredible saga grabs you from the grizzly opening scene and holds you spellbound to the last page. Set in colorful New Orleans, Burgess's story of family love, struggle, loss, and a father's promise to his imprisoned son blends the history and customs of this unique city with the unforgettable characters who are caught up in John Steven's nightmare.
