Helping to understand what God has done for us and to rediscover excitement in our walk with God. The book examines the Scriptures and shows us how we can be set free to begin and maintain a brand new relationship with God.

In a world that often stresses perfection, God's grace gives us the strength to face our imperfections and faults knowing that God's provision is greater than our lack. Through this study, you will uncover the many facets of God's grace, and discover that He can empower you with the ability to extend kindness when others would choose to pull back. Magnificent Grace explores important Bible passages that describe the abundance and sufficiency of God's grace, and illuminates Bible characters who received and displayed God's grace. You will find an open invitation to a deeper relationship with God, no matter what your past decisions or present circumstances may look like. And you will be challenged to not only receive God's grace, but to take it and pour it out on others. Women of Faith Study Guides sold to date: More than 2 million

Walter Brueggemann has been one of the leading voices in Hebrew Bible interpretation for decades; his landmark works in Old Testament theology have inspired and informed a generation of students, scholars, and preachers. These chapters gather his recent addresses and essays on every part of the Hebrew Bible, many of them never published before, bringing his erudition to bear on those practices—prophecy, lament, prayer, faithful imagination, and a holy economics—that alone may usher in a humane and peaceful future for our cities.

This daily devotional contains thoughts that go back almost a half century yet are relevant in todays world. In 1986, Vicki purchased a new Bible and has progressively filled the front blank pages with one-liners she heard and thought to be profound over the years. She listened to messages of Gods unconditional love and forgiveness during church services, Bible studies, and spiritual conferences and soaked up his grace and peace during prayer time, everyday conversations, and just life. She has decided to share these insightful thoughts with you through this daily devotional; her first attempt at being a writer and author. In her early Christian faith, Vicki found God to be her safe haven, and she believes every person needs a daily reminder to stay focused on the absolute truths through Jesus teachings. She is bursting with excitement to share the wisdom and knowledge she has experienced over her forty years of growing in Christ. Come, feast at his table!

Large Print Edition “He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted... to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning.” –Isaiah 61:1-3, NIV Rebecca was no stranger to adversity. Marked as different from an early age by her visual disability and half-Filipino heritage, she tried her best to bury herself in the pages of a book. For years, she was able to find solace in stories, until an ill-fated battle with her own personal Goliath left her with a shattered heart and broken dreams. Rebecca found herself at the darkest point in her life. All she knew was that she needed to finish school and find work so that she could continue to afford the expensive medicines that maintained what remained of her precious eyesight. During the darkest point in her life, a miraculous encounter with God gave her a new hope and a new purpose. Rebecca accepted the call to ministry in the United Methodist Church, and since then, her life has never been the same. By writing just fifteen minutes a day, you can find God’s comfort and spiritual healing for your own life! Redeemed by the gift of God’s grace, Rebecca found her own “happy ending.” In this book,

How do people from 2,000 years ago relate to today? You will be amazed at how close you come to many if not all of the people and events that will be explored in this devotional. They may even be part of your life today Pearl committed her life to Jesus Christ when she was entering middle age and involved in Bible study with women who taught her the Bible. Her life seemed to be in shambles; her marriage was in shambles, and she felt in her heart there was something missing. She attended a womans conference and gave her life to Christ. The chaos began to fall away; Christ came in and gave her the desire and the heart to face what was wrong, transform a marriage that was ending, face tragic childhood issues, and turn them into testimonies for the Lord.
